Easter Teaching Evenings // 1st, 2nd & 3rd April

7.30pm in the Main Worship Area
Speaker: Graeme Clarke

Wednesday Only a Holy God
Thursday From the Courtroom to the Cross
Friday Three Hours That Changed the World

Tea and coffee will be served on all three evenings.

There will be a bookstall on each evening as well.
Payment for any books will be cash only.

These services will not be live-streamed like our regular Sunday services. They will be recorded and posted on YouTube after Easter.

Other Announcements...

An online form is on our church website for anyone who is planning to be involved in mission work this summer. If you are planning to be involved in any kind of Gospel work locally or further afield, please complete the form so we can support you and pray for you.

A box for fireside quiz sheet returns is at the Coffee Dock. The deadline for quiz returns and monies received from the quiz sheets is next Sunday (29th March). Any monies received from the quiz sheets can be shared via the offering. Please put monies received in an envelope marked 'Fireside Quiz Sheets' and the page numbers from your bundle.

The next Men's Event will be a Games Night and BBQ. It will be held on Friday 17th April from 8pm in the church hall. The event is for men in the congregation aged 16+.

The Congregational Committee have raised grave fees to £150 for members of the congregation and to £250 for non-members of the congregation.

The Committee have agreed to make pews from the old building available to members of the congregation to purchase for a suggested price of £100. If you would be interested in purchasing a pew, please speak to Wilnor Reid. The deadline for expressions of interest is the end of March.
